

4 SLAIN; 60 SHOT IN DUBLIN BATTLE

KING'S TROOPS FIRE INTO JEERING MOB WHICH HAD BOMBARDED THEM.

SEVEN ARE EXPECTED TO DIE

Battalion Were Seeking Big Shipment of Ammunition Smuggled in by Irish Nationalists for Use in Home Rule Battles.

Dublin.—Three men and one woman are dead and more than 60 wounded persons are in a hospital as the result of a battle of the king's own Scottish borderers firing into a mob in the streets of Dublin. Seven of the wounded are expected to die. Among them are three women and a boy aged 10.

The affray was the climax of a gun-running exploit of the National volunteers, who were being aided by a mob composed largely of women and youths. A consignment of rifles, said to number 10,000, was landed at Howth, nine miles from Dublin, from a private yacht. The Nationalist volunteers cut the telegraph wires, stopped travel on the Dublin roads and, according to reports, sent away most of the rifles, together with 70,000 rounds of ammunition, in motor cars. Mob Cheers for Redmond.

A battalion of the king's own Scottish borderers was ordered to capture the arms when the authorities heard the volunteers were bringing them into the city. The soldiers encountered a detachment of volunteers at Clonmel bridge and an outbreak resulted. Soon a great crowd collected and followed the troops, jeering them and cheering for John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, and home rule. Finally the mob began throwing bottles and stones, inflicting several injuries. To this attack the battalion replied with a scattered fusillade. In an instant the street was covered with wounded, while terrified men, women and children ran in all directions.

Many Rifles Seized.
St. James hospital is situated only 200 yards from the scene of the affray and the wounded were quickly taken there, where four of them died. The soldiers and police seized a hundred rifles. The borderers are confined to barracks to prevent the people attacking them. A street car, in which a soldier was riding, was wrecked, but the soldier escaped. Further rioting is feared.

"Dead" Woman Makes Protest.
Waterbury, Conn.—Mrs. Elizabeth Tanner, 58, while being removed from the room where she "died" in an undertaker's transportation case, shocked the attendants with a yell of protest against the rough manner in which they were handling her body, and directed them, by no means mildly, to be more careful.

Mexico Peace at Hand.
Washington.—Confident that peace was at hand, in Mexico, administration officials awaited the outcome of the meeting at Tampico between Carranza and Reginaldo Cepeda, envoy of the Carral government, to arrange for the transfer of administrations in Mexico City.

Runaway Unites Lovers.
Ruhlar, Colo.—James Sheen was reunited to his sweetheart of 35 years ago, Miss Amy Dodd, whom he had thought dead, when a runaway accident brought them together.

Masonic Commander Dead.
Murfreesboro, Tenn.—After a month's illness, Maj. James D. Richardson, sovereign grand commander of the Scottish Rite Masons, southern jurisdiction, is dead at his home at Murfreesboro. He had been in feeble health the last four years.

Girls Candler Eggs.
New York.—Girl candler may take the places of strikers who have quit. Produce merchants are seriously thinking of employing girls to handle the bazaar product.

Too Noisy, Shoots Two.
Chicago.—Claiming they made so much noise during the day he could not sleep, Ludwig Mazarowski, a night watchman, shot and wounded two employees of a dairy.

Three Killed as Auto Upsets.
San Diego, Cal.—J. M. Whitley, his daughter, Mrs. George Page, and her 11-month-old son were killed when their automobile turned over on a grade near Lakeside.

Makes "Dive of Death."
Bridgeport, Conn.—Seeking to emulate a high diving feat he had witnessed, Francis Peters crawled to the branches of a high tree and made a "dive of death" in a pond. His friends had tried to stop him.

Snake Turns on Charmer.
Reelin, Wis.—In full view of a big crowd of men and women seeing the sights of a carnival here, Myrtle Wilson, a snake-charmer, was bitten by a rattlesnake and died later. In the crowd was the woman's husband.

TO DISOLVE NEW HAVEN

CORPORATION IS SCATHINGLY ARRAIGNED.

Charged With Earning 90 Per Cent of Freight and 95 Per Cent of Passenger Revenues in New England.

New York.—Under orders of President Wilson and Attorney-General McReynolds, a Sherman law antitrust suit to dissolve the New Haven railroad trolley and steamship combination in New England was filed here. The corporation was scathingly arraigned as a "combination in restraint of trade and commerce."

The bill charges that the New Haven had acquired control of nine railroad systems, 22 boat lines and 1,500 miles of trolley lines. It charges that the New Haven earns about 91 per cent of the gross freight revenues and about 95 per cent of the gross passenger revenues of all New England railroads.

The government asks that the contracts, combinations and conspiracies in restraint of trade and commerce, together with the attempts to monopolize, be declared a violation of the Sherman antitrust law. It asks for the separation of all the railroads, steamboat and trolley lines and for the breaking up of the control of steamboat lines through the navigation company.

HUNGER STRIKE IS A SHAM

Forceful Feeding Will Be Practiced on Becky Edelson Unless She Offers to Eat.

New York.—While physicians of Blackwell's Island questioned the sincerity of "Becky" Edelson's hunger strike, they removed the young woman anarchist to a prison hospital that they might observe more closely her physical condition.

Since Monday night she has refused to eat, but apparently has not grown weak from hunger. Prison officials expressed suspicion that she had been surreptitiously eating food smuggled to her cell by other prisoners. If Miss Edelson does not consent to take nourishment she will be strapped to the bed and fed forcibly if her condition shows she requires nourishment.

JONES' NAME IS WITHDRAWN

President Acts on Insistent Request of Chicagoan Who Was Named on Federal Reserve Board.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson withdrew the appointment of Thomas D. Jones to the federal reserve board at the insistent request of the Chicagoan. The correspondence that passed between Mr. Jones and the president was made public at the White House.

Mr. Jones said he was unwilling to further remain a cause of embarrassment to the president and his administration, and in view of the attack on him by seven members of the committee on banking and currency, demanded that his name be withdrawn.

CANAL TO OPEN AUGUST 15

Commercial Service to Be Inaugurated With Passage of Government Steamer Through Panama.

Washington, D. C.—The opening of the Panama canal to the world's commerce on Aug. 15 next was announced by Secretary Garrison.

Probably the first vessel to pass through the great waterway will be the Cristobal, a war department steamer, now at Colon.

There will be no formalities in connection with the epoch-making event, all ceremonies being left for the official opening, when the international fleet passes through the canal in March, 1915.

NEW TYPE OF PLAGUE FOUND

Septicemic Proves Fatal to Woman, Making Four Fatalities and Nine Cases.

New Orleans, La.—What federal health authorities declared to be the septicemic type of bubonic plague appeared here and claimed as its victim Mrs. Regina Schmitt, 73 years old. This type is considered more dangerous than the bubonic type, known to exist here since June 27. The pneumonic type, said to prove fatal in 98 cases out of 100, has not been found here.

Name of Jones Withdrawn

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson withdrew the name of Thomas B. Jones as member of the federal reserve board at the request of the Chicago manufacturer.

Ex-Politician Flees Prison

Leavenworth, Kan.—Digs Nolan, former Omaha politician, escaped from the federal penitentiary here.

Budapest Is Stormwreck

Budapest, Hungary.—Many persons were killed and enormous damage done to property in a hurricane which swept over this city. Hardly a boat on the Danube escaped the effects of the storm.

Train Robber of Thousands

Los Angeles, Cal.—Southern Pacific train No. 22, coast line, is reported to have been held up and the passengers robbed of several thousand dollars near Chatsworth station, north of Burbank, by two.

GEN. RAOUL MADERO

General Madero is a brother of Francisco Madero, who was murdered when the Huerta regime came into power. General Madero is one of the ablest commanders in the rebel army and fought continuously in the campaign to overthrow Huerta and revenge his brother.

ULSTER CONFERENCE FAILS

LEADERS CANNOT AGREE ON AREA TO BE EXCLUDED.

Second Reading on Bill to Amend Irish Home Rule Measure Will Be Next Tuesday.

London, Eng.—The fact that the conference at Buckingham palace between the leaders of the various political parties had failed to agree on the part of Ulster to be excluded from the control of the Dublin parliament was confirmed by Premier Asquith in the house of commons.

The premier's statement on the subject of the meeting of the conference was very brief. He said:

"The possibility of finding an area to be excluded from the operation of the Irish home rule bill was considered, but the conference, unable to agree in principle or in detail on such an area, brought its meeting to a close."

Premier Asquith merely added: "That is the report made, Mr. Speaker, by the chairman of the conference to the king."

Asquith then announced that the second reading of the bill to amend the Irish home rule bill would be July 28. The premier, invited to inform the house as to the exact differences of opinion which prevented the attainment of a settlement by the conference, replied:

"I can make no statement on the subject at the present moment."

The house of commons then adjourned.

GAVE UP MILLIONS TO WED

"Love Is More Than Money," Said Mrs. Marie Garland and Married; Now Wants Divorce.

Boston, Mass.—Mrs. Marie Tudor Garland Green, who forfeited the income on nearly $10,000,000 left by her husband, James A. Garland, a yachtman, to wed Francis Cushing Green of New York, who for four years was Mr. Garland's chief adviser in the management of his vast estate at Buzzard's Bay, has sued Mr. Green for divorce.

She accuses him of infidelity. Mrs. Green was one of the well-known Tudor girls of Boston. "Love is more to me than money," she said when she married Green.

Tangoers on Brink of Hell

New York.—Evangelist Jones declared that New Yorkers are dancing the tango in cabarets "on the brink of hell." He says that the only difference between Manhattan and hell is that Manhattan is surrounded by water.

Scourge of Grasshoppers

Cincinnati.—Several thousand men, women and children stampeded from a moving picture air dome when a swarm of grasshoppers took possession.

Children Burnt to Death

Taylor, Wis.—The four children of Richard Roberts of this town burned to death when the home caught fire while the father was on a visit with a neighbor. The cause of the fire is not known.

Strikers Killed in Riot

St. Petersburg.—At least five striking workmen were killed and eight seriously wounded during the fighting in the streets of St. Petersburg between strikers and cosacs. Three police officers are seriously injured.

AUSTRIA WAR THREATENED

TROOPS IN READINESS FOR INVASION OF SERBIA.

Other Nations Preparing to Take Part: All German Officers on Leave Notified to Return to Posts.

Berlin.—Austria and Serbia are upon the verge of the conflict which has been expected by all Europe since the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand. An ultimatum has been received at Belgrade calling upon the Serbian government to suppress the pan-Serbian movement and punish those responsible for the assassination. It is understood that Serbia will refuse to comply with the demands of the ultimatum, which calls for a reply by 6 o'clock tonight.

Austria has made all preparations for war. A fleet of monitors is gathering at Semlin, opposite Belgrade, and for the last two weeks troops have been concentrating on the border. A partial censorship was established by the government, and newspapers were prohibited from publishing any news as to the movement of troops or military preparations.

Baron Hoeslendorf, chief of the Austrian general staff, has ordered seven army corps held in readiness to invade Serbia from Temesvar. It was reported here. Failure of Serbia to comply with the demands of the Austro-Hungarian ultimatum will be followed immediately by invasion of the country, it is declared.

Other nations are preparing for the part they will be expected to play as a result of the impending conflict. Italy and Germany have approved of the Austrian program. All German officers on leave of absence have been notified to return to their posts at a moment's notice.

COURT TO PREVENT DIVORCES

Those With Marital Woes Invited to Consult Chicago Judge Before Filing Suit.

Chicago, Ill.—The Chicago divorce prevention bureau of the municipal court opened its doors as the first branch of a court created solely to fight the divorce evil. The divorce prevention bureau is part of the court of domestic relations.

"Don't apply for a divorce until you have consulted Judge Torrisson in the prevention bureau," is the advice given to all seeking relief in the domestic relations court.

"In many instances a frank discussion will make great woes seem temporary vexations," said Judge Torrisson. "My assistants and I will welcome all who feel that they are at the parting of the ways. I have seen many cases where friendly counsel and a sober view of the future might have brought about a new understanding."

BLUE BLOOD MILITANTS HELD

Taken When They Insist on Presenting Mrs. Pankhurst's Petition to King at Buckingham Palace.

London.—Two suffragettes belonging to the British nobility, Lady Barclay and the Hon. Miss Edith Fitzgerald, were arrested at Buckingham Palace, where they made persistent attempt to present to King George a letter written to his majesty by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militant suffragettes. The letter demanded a personal interview with the king and said suffragettes should be given the same right to interview as certain militant men, namely Sir Edward Carson and others invited to Buckingham Palace by the king on his own initiative.

3,400 MEN GET HIGHER WAGE

Court Orders Centan-Hour Increase for Kansas City Car Men in Receiver's Suit.

Kansas City, Mo.—Upon recommendation of the receivers of the Metropolitan street railway of this city, Federal Judge Hook ordered an increase of 1 cent an hour in the wages of the company's employees. The increase will affect about 3,400 men, and will cost the company between $110,000 to $125,000 a year, according to the estimates of the receivers.

Ford Motor Plant to Close

Detroit, Mich.—For the first time in its history the Ford motor plant closed. The only other time that operations have been near to entire suspension was last spring, when inadequate sewers flooded the lower parts of the building and caused the laying off about 8,000 men.

Passengers Lose to Bandits

Los Angeles.—Boarding the rear platform of the last car as the train was leaving Chatsworth Park, two masked bandits robbed passengers of south-bound Southern Pacific train No. 22 of more than $2,000.

Too Much Pie

Jersey City, N. J.—Declaring that her husband took to beer when she embraced Christian Science and suffrage, Mrs. Philip Weissenberg seeks a divorce. She alleges he forced her to eat mince pie every night.

Second Romance in Cabinet

Washington, D. C.—Washington society is momentarily expecting announcement of the engagement of Attorney General McReynolds and Miss Lucy Burleson, daughter of Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson.

GOOD TIMES COMING

Artificial Depression of Business at an End.

Approach of Boom in Country Has Forced Obstructionists to Get Out of the Way—Era of Prosperity at Hand.

The Pennsylvania railroad has ordered 100,000 tons of steel rails. This order was divided among five steel-making corporations: The steel trust, and the Pennsylvania, Cambria, Lackawanna and Bethlehem steel companies.

The division of such an order proves that the road needs the rails in a hurry. It has held off from ordering them just as long as possible; it needs them now in rush time to take care of the increase of business which has already begun.

Part of this hold-off policy, no doubt, was due to genuine apprehension as to future legislation. More, it is to be feared, was designed to put pressure on the administration and the interstate commerce commission, as a means of forcing favorable action on railroad demands. How long this plan of bulldozing would have been followed under ordinary conditions, no one can tell.

In this case, the near approach of a boom in business has forced obstructionists to get out of the way, and the Pennsylvania railroad is too well managed an institution to be the last to heed that warning.

"There's a good time comin', it's almost here." The prosperity special sweeping in from western farms is almost in sight. The effort to "put Wilson in a hole" by artificially prolonging the period of dull times through which the world has been passing has failed ignominiously; and now intelligent business men throughout the land are joining to promote and care for the era of progress which Wall street tried in vain to keep away.

Sees Certain Victory

Before Norman E. Mack sailed for Europe he dictated a statement concerning the political situation. He does not believe that the Republicans and the Progressives will get together this fall or in 1916, and that in both instances, victory will be certain for the Democrats.

"When Colonel Roosevelt made his Pittsburgh speech," said Mr. Mack, "he again threw down the gauntlet to the Republican party and cleared up the entire political situation."

"As a matter of fact, it was the only thing left for Mr. Roosevelt to do unless he wanted to repudiate all his utterances from the day he arrived at the Chicago convention, two years ago, for the purpose of annihilating the Republican party, which he accomplished at that time. His Pittsburgh speech showed his intention of continuing the fight to a finish until the job is completed."

"The Republican party now is in the same condition that the Democratic party was for 16 years, except that Roosevelt expects to continue the third party in existence, which the contestants in the Democratic party did not do from 1896 to 1905."

A Question

The United States Steel corporation now has unfilled orders ahead for more than 4,000,000 tons of its products. The figure was 3,998,160 tons on May 31, and there has been a steady increase since that date.

This is an increase of 25 per cent over the average unfilled orders during 1910 and 1911, when the Aldrich tariff was in its glory, and "prosperity" was reigning by Wall street fiat. Now, according to the same financial center, there is great "depression" in business, for which tariff and trust legislation are declared responsible.

What makes prosperity, as Wall street defines the word; actual business, like making steel, or marking stocks up and down on a blackboard?

Really Up to the Country

Whether President Wilson is right or not in regarding the "tired feeling" of many business men as "merely psychological"—that is, existing only in their own imaginations—it is certain that the foundations of American prosperity are solid.

Good crops have always meant "good times" heretofore. Quite possibly if we could all just make up our minds to take a more cheerful view of the future we would all wake up some fine morning and find Prosperity knocking at our doors and refusing to go away unless positively kicked down the front steps.

Good Deal of a Reality

And that resumption of full-time work by the Allegheny Steel company at Brackenridge, Pa., isn't any psychological stunt, either.—Indianapolis News.

May Trust the President

It is a certainty that the president and his associates at the capital know more of the innermost details of situations than do their critics. This, of course, applies specially to the Mexican situation. It also applies to all the big questions for which the administration is being criticized.

Need a Little Help

As usual, the Progressives are confident that with a little help from the Republicans and Democrats they can take charge of the government.

NO EXPERT WITNESS NEEDED

Quite Evident Mr. Miggs Was Right When He Testified as to the Handwriting.

"Label, indeed!" Old Miggs repeated the words to himself dully and uncomprehendingly, as he tramped along to the court, where he was to appear as witness in a local libel suit.

Nervously he entered the witness box. The fierce looking lawyer eyed him calculatingly.

"Do you swear," he asked, "that this is not your handwriting?"

"I don't think so," stammered Miggs.

"Now, be careful," intimated the lawyer. "Are you prepared to swear that this handwriting does not resemble yours?"

"Yes," answered Miggs trembling.

"You take your oath that this does not in any way resemble your handwriting?" solemnly queried the learned man.

"Y-yes, sir," stammered the witness, now thoroughly frightened.

"Well, then, prove it!" denounced the lawyer, triumphantly, as he thrust his head toward the witness.

This action woke the last spark of drooping courage in poor Miggs, and, muttering forth his head, he yelled:

"Yes I can't write!"

Snakes Got His Roll

"I lost $225 trying to kill rattlesnakes, and now I am going to walk back to my home in Brooklyn," explained a man about forty-five years old, who said he is Ezra Sellen.

Sellen said he started for a walk from his boarding place, encountered a lot of rattlesnakes, killed some, fled from the others, waded a stream, and then missed his roll of bills. He said he had just money enough left to ride to this city and took the state road out of town.—Middletown (N. Y.) Dispatch to New York World.

Law's Uncertainties

"When you poke a toad," said old Farmer Hornbeck, philosophically, "you can't tell which way he will jump, nor how far, and it is just about the same way with a jury."

"That so?" returned young Jay Green, in a noncommittal way.

"Yep. For instance, in the case of Plunk Jarvis, who has just been tried over at Kicksassett courthouse for pulling out his brother-in-law's whiskers by the roots in a fight, the jury discharged Plunk and fined his brother-in-law 10 cents, the regular price of a shave."—Puck.

Absurd Comment

Theodore Dreiser, the realist, said of an idealist at the Players' club in New York:

"The man's comments on life are ludicrous and absurd. They remind me of the old lady's comment on the work of the militant suffragettes."

"After the suffragettes in London had slashed a Valesquez, a Bellini and a Gentile, the old lady said, with a kind of saintly expression:

"But, thank goodness, they're all old pictures that are being slashed."

Carelessness Cause of Fires

More than 50 per cent of all fires are caused by simple carelessness, which is unnecessary and criminal. Repairs to dilapidated buildings, the removal of all fire breeding material, care in burning weeds and rubbish, the placing of engines at a safe distance from buildings, the removal of oily waste, proper ventilation—in brief, plain common sense, will minimize the danger from this class of fires.

As Usual

Englishman.—The suffragettes saluted the prime minister this morning.

American.—Did they fire 21 guns?

Englishman.—No: houses.—Life.

It is possible to be a man of many parts by trying to be all the different kinds of fool at once.

PRIZE FOOD

Palatable, Economical, Nourishing.

A Nebr. woman has outlined the prize food in a few words, and that from personal experience. She writes:

"After our long experience with Grape-Nuts, I cannot say enough in its favor. We have used this food almost continually for seven years."

"We sometimes tried other advertised breakfast foods but we invariably returned to Grape-Nuts as the most palatable, economical and nourishing of all."

"When I quit tea and coffee and began to use Postum and Grape-Nuts, I was almost a nervous wreck. I was so irritable I could not sleep nights, had no interest in life."

"After using Grape-Nuts a short time I began to improve and all these ailments have disappeared and now I am a well woman. My two children have been almost raised on Grape-Nuts, which they eat three times a day."

"They are pictures of health and have never had the least symptom of stomach trouble, even through the most severe stage of whooping cough they could retain Grape-Nuts when all else failed."

"Grape-Nuts food has saved doctor bills, and has been, therefore, a most economical food for us."

POOR Quality
